

LION KING Costume Committee

We have a costume committee for Lion King. The committee has decided something that we wanted to make you aware of.

We will ask each actor to make his or her own costume(s). SBCT, in my experience, has not done anything like this before, so are not sure how all the details will work out, but we think it will have more advantages than disadvantages.

Lion King has a great number of costumes, (42 at my last count) almost none of which can be pulled out of the costume closet. If everyone pitches in, we can have good costumes without anyone being overly burdened. Obviously, if you make your own costume, you get to keep it.

While we are looking for some individual variety, we also must have some standard similarities and so the committee will guide you and provide an “ideabook” of suggestions and consultation along the way. I won’t go into details yet since you don’t know yet which character you will be working on.

You might be thinking that you can’t sew, etc. Not to worry! The committee will provide whatever resources you might need. We are here to support you and help you along the way, be it direction, sewing, fabric, etc. We will all cross that bridge when we get to it.

The purpose of this notice is to let you know the direction in which we are going so you won’t be surprised. If you would like to see some pictures of the types of costumes we are thinking about, you may look here:
